Our People

Our Volunteer that we would like to introduce this month, is Kasia.

Kasia is working hard to add all the dogs to the website. Kasia is a whizz with technology and has also set out on doing much needed updates with the background information of the website. The dog profiles that Kasia is writing are getting rave reviews and are a pleasure to read. She is producing the monthly newsletter for us to keep everyone informed, and this is the 12th edition. Kasia is always a call away to help and does so much more than I can describe in a short paragraph (Barbara).

We are thrilled to have Kasia as part of the Sula family ❤️

Note from your copywriter: I am honored to be part of the Sula Family. Thank you!

And the Calls Keep Coming...

Every day is an emotional journey for the dog rescuers around the world. As the sun sets, little voice of those saved can be heard... Thank you for saving us.

We Are Beautiful

Operational Sponsorship

- ❶ The Sula Society survives as a rescue thanks to supporters across the Americas, and beyond, through adoption, donations, fundraising and sponsorship.
- ❷ Operational Sponsorship allows you - our supporters to decide where you want to help us. From sponsoring a worker, food for our dogs, vet care or utility costs - every penny or peso counts and is greatly appreciated.
- ❸ Costs to run a shelter add up quickly:
  - Monthly wages for 6 workers 6 days a week cost $57,600 pesos.
  - Monthly dog food cost is $84,000 pesos.
  - Groomer cost per day is $500 pesos.
  - Vet care per month is $70,000 pesos.
- ❹ From one day to one month - operational sponsorship is the gift that makes a difference where you choose!

- ♥ I was raised in a shelter after my mom was tragically shot.
- ♥ I love other dogs and walk like a charm on a leash.
- ♥ I love to play.
- ♥ I am a sweet, jet-black boy looking for someone to love. Could it be you?

Adopt a Black Dog Month

- ✗ Long time ago in a land far away lived many black dogs of different shapes and sizes. The kingdom was rich in the natural beauty of the Sierra Madre and glistening waters of the Pacific Ocean. Some people were kind and loving towards dogs of the kingdom, while others were not. Order of knights named Sula became the voice of those who could not speak for themselves...
- ✗ Many dogs await in the kingdom to be chosen, but black coat seems to create a cloak of invisibility. Here is the call for all who love dogs: LET'S CHANGE THE WORLD ONE ADOPTED BLACK DOG AT THE TIME!
