Our People

Meet Jenny- critical employee of the Sula team working at the shelter.

Jenny is an important member of the Sula team. She is the gatekeeper of all the rescued dogs and ensures their safety. Checking on the kennels, cleaning, letting dogs out to play and so many other duties fall on Jenny, yet she is always there to work alongside the team and beyond. The smaller the dogs, the bigger the mess, but we can always count on Jenny to look after everyone. Jenny, we are so lucky to have you!

Thank you!

Flight Angels Are Among Us

Flight Angels are wonderful volunteers who have their flight booked from Puerto Vallarta and allow us to add a dog or dogs to their ticket. There is no cost to be a Flight Angel and no long-term commitment.

How Does it Work

- It all starts with your flight information, and a chat is created to keep everyone informed. On the day of your departure our team member meets you at the airport with all necessary paperwork and assists with check-in. In a cabin dog has a soft sided carrier that you carry through the security. Dog traveling in cargo remains with volunteer until 1 hour prior to takeoff. When cargo dog is on board the flight attendant brings boarding tag. Once you reach your destination and go through the customs adopter meets you at "arrivals." Bring Kleenex for this joyful moment!
- Flight Angels enable us to not only send a dog home, but to rescue another, and fund the operations through adoption fees. Become a Flight Angel today!

Friends Forever

Archie and Rosie

- From initial plight for help it took two days of search to find Archie and his canine friend Rosie. Original plan to rescue only Archie was changed to taking Rosie along when she stepped towards the car as her injured friend was loaded. Archie has suffered horrific wound that went untreated for a long time. Rosie never left his side.
- Now at the safety of the vet Archie is getting it cleaned, bandages changed and even had his first surgery. Archie is a survivor, and as much as it costs to save him, he deserves a life full of love. Rosie got to visit him at the clinic, and we look forward to reuniting this sweet duo.
